REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The Examiner finds Applicant's arguments on pages 3-7 of the "Response to Office Action" filed 8 April 2004 concerning a method of implementing a collaborative management application persuasive as applied to independent claim 1. The combinations of prior art from Boden et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,930,512), Seybold (U.S. Patent No. 5,877,758), and Robinson (U.S. Patent No. 5,918,014) neither renders obvious nor anticipates the combination of recited elements in light of claim 1. In particular, the combination of Boden, Seybold, and Robinson does not teach "selecting a filter for filtering items for the selected client, matters and component."

2. The Examiner finds Applicant's arguments on pages 7-11 of the "Response to Office Action" filed 8 April 2004 concerning a software program for implementing a website by which documents can be shared between a service provider and a client persuasive as applied to independent claim 15. The combinations of prior art from Clements (U.S. Patent No. 6,182,080), Hunt et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,253,234), Boden et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,930,512), and Robinson (U.S. Patent No. 5,918,014) neither renders obvious nor anticipates the combination of recited elements in light of claim 15. In particular, the combination of Clements, Hunt, Boden, and Robinson does not teach "a first graphical interface by which a first user associated with the service provider can log into the network application, can add one or more documents to the repository, and can assign a category, an authorization, and a matter for each document, wherein the matter conceptually links a plurality of related documents and information associated with the matter is applicable to each of the plurality of documents.”

CONCLUSION
